

HIS FIRST FLIGHT (1)

Q.No 1-What is the young seagull afraid of?

Ans: The young seagull afraid of flying over the vast expanse of sea. He thinks that his wings will never support him and he may fall down.

Q.No-2: Why do not his parents, his brothers and sisters give him food?

Ans: His parents, his brothers and sisters do not give him food because they want to force him to fly and search food for himself.

Q.No.3: What does he feel when he finally flaps his wings and finds that he is not falling?

Ans: When he finally flaps his wings and finds that he is not falling he utters a joyous scream. Then he begins to flap them again and again. He soared higher.

Q.No.4: What does his mother do to force him to fly?

Ans: His mother picks up a piece of fish and flies toward him. But when she was just opposite to him , her wings motionless and then maddened by the sight of the food. In this way the seagull made his flight.

Q.No:5 What is significant about the birds first flight?

Ans: The significant about the birds first flight is that fears are natural before the start of any new task. Like the seagull was hungry and his family members force and motivated him to fly.

Q.No-6: What lesson do you derive from this simple story?

Ans: The lesson that we learn from this simple story is that any task is not so much difficult, Nothing is impossible. But we have to take the risk and try again and again.

Q.No.7:Why is it difficult to do something for the first time?

Ans: It is very difficult to do something for the first time because we do not know what the outcome will be.

(1.2) FIRST YEAR AT HARROW

Q.No.1: How old was Churchill when he entered “the inhospitable region of examination”?

Ans: Churchill was twelve years old when he entered the inhospitable region of examination. These examinations were a great trial to him.

Q.No.2: Which subjects were dearest to Churchill and which ones were favored by the examiner?

Ans: History, Poetry and writing essays were the subjects which were dearest to Churchill. Latin and mathematics were the subjects which were favored by the examiners.

Q.No.3: In what way did Mr. Welldon take a broadminded view of Churchill's Latin?

Ans: Mr. Welldon took a broadminded view of Churchill's Latin by judging him on the basis of general ability and intelligence.

Q.No.4: How were the names printed in the school list and at which position did Churchill's name appear?

Ans: The names were printed in the school list in alphabetical order and Churchill's name occurred at No 3 from the bottom.

Q.No.5: What was Somervell's system of teaching English?

Ans: Mr. Somervell had a unique system of English teaching. He would take a long sentence and break it up into its component parts using black, red, blue and green inks.

Q.No.7: What does Churchill think Mr. Welldon considered him to be worthy to pass into Harrow?

Ans: Churchill thinks that Mr. Welldon considered him to be worthy to pass into Harrow on the basis of his general ability and intelligence.

Q.No.8: Why does the author consider his situation at Harrow as unpretentious?

Ans: The author considers his situation as unpretentious because he was placed at the bottom of the list. He was a weak student and was allowed to learn English only.

Q.No.9: Why were Churchill and other such students not allowed to learn Latin and Greek?

Ans: Churchill and other such students were not allowed to learn Latin and Greek because they were the weakest students of the class. So they were not allowed to learn these difficult languages.

(1.3) SEPTEMBER THE FIRST DAY AT SCHOOL

Q.No1: What is the Theme OR Central idea OR main idea of the poem?

Ans: In this poem, the poet depicts the feelings of a father about his son. He starts with the first day of school when he is taking his son to school. Then he expresses his views about the school curriculum, and contends that children have tough time at school. But he hopes that, like Joseph's story, the schooling will prove beneficial to his son.

Q.No2: Reference to the context , paraphrase explanation of the stanza:

Reference to the Context: These lines are taken from the poem "September, the First Day of School" written by Homard Nemerov.

Paraphrase: In this poem, the poet depicts the feelings of a father about his son. He starts with the first day of school when he is taking his son to school. Then he expresses his views about the school curriculum, and contends that children have tough time at school. But he hopes that, like Joseph's story, the schooling will prove beneficial to his son.

Explanation: The speaker, a father, says that he is taking his son to school. They are holding each other's hands. He has the company of his son on the way to school.
.....

(2.1) ITS COUNTRY FOR ME

Q.No.1: How does Joel feel about getting out of bed at 11:15 pm to feed the lamb? How can you tell?

Ans: Joel feels happy about getting out of bed at 11:15 pm to feed the lamb. When he is asked by his mother to go to the barn to feed the lamb, he agrees because feeding lamb is his daily routine. Which gives him great pleasures.

Q.No.2: Describe the Hollands farm?

Ans: Hollands farm is situated near Scales Mound a town of 400 people. It is spread on 245 acres area. The farm was bought by his great father in 1860.

Q.No.3: In what ways does Joel play the role of an adult?

Ans: Joel is a teenager but he does the work of an adult. He works with his family together. He knows how to operate machine and repair them. He knows how to drive powerful vehicles like tractor. He is a mechanic also.

Q.No.4: Does Joel agree with his brother about the rewards of a farming life?

Ans: Joel does not agree with his brother about the rewards of a farming life. His brother says that it is independent life but Joel says that it is not independent. In it he has many bosses.

Q.No.5: What skill must a farmer have to run a farm like the Hollands?

Ans: A farmer must know many skills like the Hollands. He must be skilled in operating machines. He must know how to drive powerful vehicles like tractor. He must know to repair machines and vehicles.

Q.No.6: Joel says that of all the place on earth, he would choose to live "right there" on the farm. Do you think his choice is a good one?

Ans: Yes I think his choice is good. Working in one's own farm and helping parents is a satisfied and pleasant life.

Q.No.7: In a sentence state the main idea of the story (Its country for me).

Ans: The main idea of the story is full of pleasures and peace of mind. Joel does the hardwork, helps his parents and leads a good life.

(2.2) OUR ENVIRONMENT

Q.No.1: Why did man start corrupting the environment? What were the reasons?

Ans: Man started corrupting the environment because of his lack of knowledge and ignorance. He started disturbing the balance of nature by polluting air, earth and water.

Q.No.2: Why does the author say that environment is now a social problem?

Ans: The author says that environment is now a social problem because with the increase in air, water and land pollution creates health problems. This polluted environment puts man in a dangerous position.

Q.No.3: What is an ecosystem? How does nature keep the ecosystem balanced?

Ans: The adjustment of relation between living things and physical environment is called ecosystem. There is a food chain in which those organisms that produce their food are eaten by small animals, which are eaten by large animals. In this way nature keeps the ecosystem balanced.

Q.No.4: What does an alteration in one part of the ecosystem impact other parts of the ecosystem?

Ans: Alteration in one part of the ecosystem. Disturbance of ecosystem creates health problems, food shortage and epidemic diseases.

Q.No.5: What is the question before the society now? How could the society respond to this question?

Ans: The question before the society is about the cleaning of the environment. What should human beings do to compensate for the damage they have done to the environment?

Q.No.6: What do you think would happen if the society does not respond to the question about environment in the befitting manner?

Ans: If society does not properly respond to the issue of pollution, it will simply be disastrous. Rivers and oceans would become hazardous... There will be no fresh air to breathe. The polluted environment will adversely affect human health and life. The world will become inhabitable.

Q.No.7: What do you think is happening in Pakistan with regard to environment? Do you think we are all well aware of the damage done to our environment?

Ans: The people of Pakistan are not aware of their environment. Consequently, the environment is decaying day by day. Trash and littering are thrown everywhere. Rivers and oceans are mostly used for the disposal of the waste.

Q.No.8: What do you think is the role of the government? What duties would you assign to the government and to the society?

Ans: Both the government and society should accept responsibility for environmental the proper role of the government is to make laws about the environment. The society should support the government in the implementation of laws. Every individual of the society should try to keep the environment clean

(3.1) the Blanket

Q.No.1: What do Peter and Granddad talk when the story begins?

Answer: When the story begins, Peter and Granddad talked about red and black double blanket that Peter's father had brought for Granddad on his going away.

Q.No.2: Who is giving the blanket as a gift to whom? Why the blanket is called a going away gift?

Answer: Peter's father was giving the red and black double blanket to Granddad. The blanket was called a going away gift because Granddad was leaving the house for ever and was being shifted to a government run old age home.

Q.No.3: Why is Peter's Dad sending Granddad away and where to?

Question 3 Answer: Peter's Dad was sending Granddad away because he was very old and Peter's father was going to marry a young girl. Granddad was being sent away in order to make room in the house for the bride. He was proposed to be sent to an Old age Home.

Q.No.4: Why does Peter's dad get angry with the girl he is going to marry?

Answer: Peter's dad got angry with the girl he is going to marry because she objected on giving such a double and expensive blanket as a gift to his father on his going-away.

Q.No.5: Why does Peter ask his father to cut the blanket into two?

Answer: Peter asked his father to cut the blanket into two because one half would be given to Granddad and the other half would be kept for his father when he grew old and was to be sent to a government run old age home.

Q.No.6: Why do all Three Peter Dad and Granddad cry at the end of the story?

Question 6 Answer: All three were crying at the end of the story because eleven year old Peter ended the story in a very meaningful manner by teaching a lesson to his father. He told his father that he should expect the same treatment in his old age as he was going to do to his own father.

Q.No.7: What sort of child is Peter? What attitude does he display toward his Grand dad and his father?

Answer: Granddad likes playing harmonica. He does not try to blame his son for his 'going away' to an old age home. He tells his grandson that it was his idea. He says that Peter's father will marry the girl and they will have babies. He does not want to be around listening to them cry all hours of the night. He displays a friendly attitude throughout the entire situation.

Q.No.8: What sort of person is Peter's father? Is he good hearted or not?

Answer: Peter's father is a selfish person. He has no regard and no respect for his father. He wants to have full control over the house. He is not a good hearted person. He should have kept his old father at home and taken care of him.

(3.2) The Way it was and is

Q.No.1; did bill cosby react honestly when his father tried to introduce him to his kind of music?

Answer: No Bill Cosby did not react honestly. His mission was to sneak past that living room before he was caught for a music appreciation lesson on the old music that he could not stand.

Q.No.2: Who were some of the musicians cosby liked when he was young?

Answer: When Cosby was young, some of the musicians he liked were Sonny Rollins, John Coltrane, Dizzy Gillespie, Miles Davis, Thelonious Monk, Bud Powell and Philly Joe Jones.

Q.No.3: Bill Cosby said that he was "falling into the great American trap" by buying a stereo for his daughter. What does he meant by it?

Answer: Bill Cosby said that he was "falling into the great American trap" by buying a stereo for his daughter. By it Bill Cosby means that the day he went into the electronics store to see equipment, those two Box 95s and Twenty Triple Hitter treble, woofer speakers, and double headed action. He even failed to notice the gleam in his daughter's eye. He failed to realize that he was "falling into the great American trap" by buying a stereo, or his daughter.

Q.No.4: Why did Cosby pretend to like his daughter's music?

Answer: Cosby pretended to like his daughter's music because he was trying to reach out to her generation, to understand that there might be more to music than just melody, harmony, and rhythm.

Q.No.5: What was humorous about the way Cosby described the volume of his daughter's music's?

Answer: Cosby said that the music record sounded like a train derailment. Then he says that all the things in home started moving and dancing because of the loud music's.

(3.3) THE MOST BEAUTIFUL FLOWER

Q.No1: What is the them OR Central idea OR main idea of the poem?

In this narrative poem, an old lady tells her story of disillusionment and the subsequent enlightenment. She is very pessimistic due to failures in life. A small blind boy changes her outlook towards life. The liveliness of the boy makes her think about her life and she becomes an optimist. She decides to see beauty in life and to ignore its ugliness

Q.No2: Reference to the context, paraphrase explanation of the stanza?

Reference to the context: These lines are taken from "The Most Beautiful Flower" written by Cheryl L. Costello-Forshey.

Paraphrase: In this narrative poem, an old lady tells her story of disillusionment and the subsequent enlightenment. She is very pessimistic due to failures in life. A small blind boy changes her outlook towards life. The liveliness of the boy makes her think about her life and she becomes an optimist. She decides to see beauty in life and to ignore its ugliness

(4.1) The Scholarship Jacket

Q.No1: What tradition was followed by the school which Marta Salinosa attended?

Answer: The small Texas School, which Marta Salinos attended, carried out a tradition of awarding every year a beautiful gold and green jacket, the school colors, to the student who had maintained highest grades for eight years.

Q.No.2: Marta expected that she would win the scholarship jacket that year?

Answer: Marta expected that she would win the scholarship jacket that year because she was fourteen and in the eighth grade. She had been a straight A since the first grade, and that year she had looked forward to owning that jacket.

Q.No.3: Why Marta could not take part in sports at school?

Answer: Marta could not take part in sports at school because were registration fees, uniform fees and trips out of town; for which she could not pay.

Q.No.4: Who were angrily arguing when Marta reached the classroom to pick her shorts? And what were they arguing about?

Answer: When Marta reached the classroom to pick her shorts, Mr. Schmidt, her history teacher and Mr. Boone, her maths teacher were angrily arguing about awarding the scholarship jacket to her or Joann.

Q.No.5: Who refused to lie or falsify Marta's academic record and why?

Answer: It was Mr. Schmidt who refused to lie or falsify Marta's academic record because she had a straight A+ average; while Joann's record was not so good and consistent.

Q.No.6: What was the change in policy regarding the award of the scholarship jacket?

Answer: The change in policy regarding the award of the scholarship jacket was that the Board had decided to charge fifteen dollars from the receiver of the scholarship jacket.

Q.No.7: What did her grandfather say when Marta told him about payment to be made for the jacket,

Answer: When Marta told her grandfather about payment to be made for the jacket, he said she should tell her principal that she had earned it by having the highest grades for eight years. And if she had to pay for it, then it was not a scholarship jacket.

Question 8: What happened when Marta told the principal what her grandfather had said?

Answer: When Marta told the principal what her grandfather had said, he sighed loudly, and went back to his big desk. He looked at her, biting his lips, as if thinking. Then he said that he would make an exception in her case and he would tell the Board that she should get her jacket.

Q.No.9: What do you think of Marta as a student?

Ans: I think that Marta is a brilliant student. She is hardworking, shy and noble

Q.No.10: What do you think of the two teachers who were arguing about Marta?

Schmidt who is Marta's history teacher believes in merit. His refusal to falsify Marta's academic record testifies his moral stature and his professional integrity. He is strikingly a noble person. Mr. Boone, math teacher, is a greedy person who sides with Joann only because her father is the owner of: the store in the town and is a member of the school board. He seems devoid of any morality and professional ethics. He is just the antithesis of Mr. Schmidt.

Q.No.11: What is your opinion about the principal of the school?

Ans: The principal seems to be a noble and good person. But I think the principal of the school is a reasonable person.

Q.No.12: How would you describe the character of Marta's grandfather?

Ans: Marta's grandfather is a simple farmer. He is a hardworking person. He has a strong power of making.

(4.2) A Long Walk Home

Q.No.1: Why did Jason readily agree to drive his father's car to Mijas?

Answer: Jason readily agreed to drive his father's car to Mijas because he had just learnt to drive and hardly ever had the opportunity to use the car.

Q.No.2: What excuse did Jason invent as an explanation for his being late?

Answer: Jason invented the excuse that the car needs some major repairs and that they had taken longer than had been expected.

Q.No. 3: Why did his father say that he was angry with himself, not with Jason?

Answer: His father said that he was angry with himself, not with Jason because he realised that he had failed as a father if after those years his son felt that he had to lie to him.

Q.No.4: Why did Jason's father decided to walk the 18 miles back home?

Answer: Jason's father decided to walk the 18 miles back home because he wanted to punish himself for failing to bring up a son who could not tell the truth to his own father.

Q.No.5: What was the most distressing and painful experience for Jason?

Answer: His protests, his apologies and the rest of his utterances were useless. He had let his father down. He never saw before his father too much in pain like this before. He were felling ashamed on what he is down.

Q.No 6: What Jasons father angry with him because he came late?

Answer: No, Jason's father was not angry with him because he came late. He was angry with for his lying.

Q.No.7: What is your opinion of the way, Jason's father responded to his son's lying to him?

Answer: In my opinion of the way, Jason's father responded to his son's lying to him, is extremely effective. He must have highly repented and felt sorry for his lying.

Q.No.8: Jason said he learned something invaluable from this experience. What do you think he learned besides learning not to lie?

Answer: I think besides learning not to lie, Jason learnt not to waste his time in stupid recreations, being punctual and keeping the promise.

(4.3) BE THE BEST OF WHATEVER YOU ARE

Q.No1: What is the Theme OR Central idea OR main idea of the poem?

Ans: This poem is about human achievements in this life. The poem talks about different possibilities and encourages the human beings to do or try to do the best. It is not the outcome of struggle that matters but the struggle itself. The poem develops these ideas through contrasting

Q.No2: Reference to the context, paraphrase explanation of the stanza?

Reference to the Context: These lines have been taken from the poem "Be the Best of Whatever You Are" written by Douglas Malloch.

Paraphrase: This poem is about human achievements in this life. The poem talks about different possibilities and encourages the human beings to do or try to do the best. It is not the outcome of struggle that matters but the struggle itself. The poem develops these ideas through contrasting

Explanation: It is better to shoot for the stars for at least you will land on the moon is the message that the poem conveys.

(5.1) Fly Away

Q.No.1: What was Helfer asked to do?

Answer: Helfer was asked to provide 5000 trained flies . The flies were needed by a film director for a film shoot.

Q.No.2: What plan did he develop?

Answer: The plan which he developed was that he prepared a box for his purpose. He provided him with large number of Larva which was to be used for the purpose.

Q.No.3: What happened at the shoot?

Answer: On the morning of the shoot, all the flies hatched right on schedule. The writer of the story loaded up and headed for the studio location.

Q.No.4: How did the director and the crew react?

Answer: The director and crew, who disbelieved in his achievement, welcomed him. Bets and jokes were being made in all directions. the director came over to him with a suspicious look in his eyes and asked him if it was true that he could put 5000 flies on something and they would crawl ahead. The narrator affirmed his statement.

Q.No.5: Why did Helfer keep the tranquilizer hidden at the shoot?

Answer: Helfer kept the tranquilizer hidden at the shoot because he wanted to hide the secret of putting flies to sleep.

Q.No.6: What does the way Helfer planned and executed the effect suggest about his skills as an animal trainer?

Answer: The way Helfer planned and executed the effect suggest that he is an excellent and highly skilled animal trainer.

Q.No.7: Why did Helfer pretended to count out the number of flies ?

Answer: Helfer pretended to count out the number of flies because he wanted to convince the director that the number of flies was exactly 5000.

Q.No.8: How do you think Helfer feels about his achievement.?

Answer: I think Helfer feels extremely happy about his achievement.

Q.No.9: Should Helfer have revealed his secret of success to the director? Why or why not?

Answer: No, Helfer should not have revealed his secret of success to the director. Because if the director would have come to know about the simple and easy way of doing all this, he would not have applauded him so much.

(5.2) The Man Who Was a Hospital

Q.No.1: How did Jerome K Jerome come to suspect that he had a bad liver?

Answer: The author was reading an advertisement of a pharmaceutical company about a patent liver-pill that offered a sure treatment for the disorder of liver. Then the detail of various symptoms was given. By reading the symptoms anyone could tell when his liver was out of order. He applied them to himself and suspected that his liver was out of order.

Q.No.2: The author says, I had walked into that reading room a happy, healthy man. I crawled out a decrepit wreck. Why?

Answer: The author entered the reading-room of the British Museum to read up the treatment of fever, a light decrease, he fancied he was suffering from. He thought that he was suffering from all those dangerous diseases. So he became tense and worried. That is why he walked out of reading-room with a heavy heart.

Q.No.3: Why did the author think he had all these diseases listed in the book?

Answer: The author thought that he had all diseases in the book because the symptoms of various diseases match the sensations that he had felt at different time in life.

Q.No.4: Why did the author feel hurt when he discovered that he did not have to housemaids knee?

Answer: The author felt hurt when he discovered that he did not have the housemaid's knee because he thought it was offensively discriminating to reserve it for old women. He wished to suffer from all the known diseases.

Q.No.5: Why should the author be an acquisition to the medical class?

Answer: Since medical students need the study of diseases, and he had all possible diseases, therefore he considers himself an acquisition to the medical. The students need not to visit hospital for diseases. They just have to walk around him, and they will become qualified doctors.

Q.No.6: Have you heard the saying a little knowledge is a dangerous thing. Do you think?

The author lacks necessary knowledge about diseases, and he pretends to know about them. His uneasiness about his health is actually caused by his little knowledge about pharmacology. He should have consulted a medical expert about the diseases. A person should not try to be the jack of all trades.

Q.No.7: What is the significance of the doctors advice Do not stuff your head with things you do not understand?

The significance of the doctors advice is that. Only an expert's opinion should be sought. A person should not try to be the jack of all trades. Therefore, he should have visited his friend before passing any judgement about his health.

(5.3) When I'm an Old Lady

Q.No1: What is the Theam OR Central idea OR main idea of the poem?

Ans: The main idea of the poem is that a mother always enjoys the mischief and wayward behavior of her children no matter how great a nuisance and naughty they are. The poem depicts the feelings of an old lady during her old age. The speaker of the poem imagines herself to be an old lady, and thinks about the time when grows old, and starts living with her grown-up children. She will behave like a kid and will play different pranks with her children.

Q.No2: Refrence to the context , paraphrase explination of the stanza?

Reference to the Context: These lines have been taken from the poem "When I'm an Old Lady" written by Joanne Bailey Baxter.

Paraphrase: The main idea of the poem is that a mother always enjoys the mischief and wayward behavior of her children no matter how great a nuisance and naughty they are.

(6.1) Finding a Job

Q.No.1: Why did Asad leave his last job?

Answer: He left his last job because his boss treated him very badly, and he didn't like his chances of advancing in the company.

Q.No.2: What advice does Umar gave to Asad to help him in his job hunt ?

Answer: Umar gave the piece of advice to Asad to help him in his job hunt. He advised him to join some of those networking groups of people who are also looking for work. They help each other in discovering new opportunities.

Q.No.3: Why does Asad wants to buy a new shirt for himself ?

Answer: Asad wants to buy a new shirt for himself because he wants to make the best impression possible at his job interviews.

Q.No.4: What is Farahs reaction when she hears that Asad had left his job?

Answer: When Farah hears that Asad had left his job, she is surprised. She says that quitting one's job doesn't sound a very wise decision to her these days.

Q.No.5: What does Farah say when Umer tells her that Asad was buying a new suit?

Answer: When Umar tells Farah that Asad was buying new suit, She expresses her surprise and remarks that is strange that he has no work and he is buying new clothes.

Q.No.6: Do you think Asad acted wisely by quitting his last job before he found a new one ?

Answer: I don't think Asad acted wisely by quitting his last job before he found a new one. Because there is unemployment. it is quite difficult to find a new job in any field of life.

Q.No.7: Why does Farah says that Quitting doesn't sound like a wise decision to her these days?

Answer: Farah says that Quitting doesn't sound like a wise decision to her these days because getting a new job is quite difficult these days.

Q.No.8: Did Farah approved the suggestion and said that That's great idea?

Answer: Yes, Farah approved of the suggestion that Umar gave to Asad.

(6.2) A Stressful Job

Q.No.1: How long Asad has been working in his new job?

Answer: He has been working in his new job for the last three months. He gets the new job with the help of networking groups.

Q.No.2: What does Asad says to Farah about his new job?

Answer: Asad says about his new job that it is a stressful job. He does not like it. He has to work hard all day long.

Q.No.3: What is the different between Asad previous job and the new job?

Answer: The difference between Asad's previous job and the new job is this that previous job was not stressful but the boss had treated him badly and he didn't see his chances of advancing in the company. The new job is a stressful job. It is just work, work and work. He works hard all day, every day.

Q.No.4: Why is Asad complaining about his new job? What does he miss?

Answer: Asad complains about his new job because he has to work hard. He doesn't have any time for enjoyment, for going to parties and staying up late talking with friends.

Q.No.5: What does Asad has now as a result of his new job?

Answer: As a result of his new job, he has money, a nice apartment and a car. He has no time to enjoy it.

Q.No.6: What does Asad mean By "would you like to change places with me", ?

Answer: By "would you like to change places with me", he means that Farah could work in his place and he would be happy to become a University student in her place.

Q.No.7: What does Umer say that he must meet Asad?

Answer: Umar says that he must meet Asad because as his true friend, he wants to advise him not to quit his job. It is very difficult to find a job these days.

Q.No.8: How did Asad found his new job?

Answer: Asad found his new job very stressful. He has to work hard the whole day long. He has no time for enjoyment.

Q.No.9: How does Farah know that Asad is making good salary? When did he tell her?

Answer: Farah knows that Asad is making a good salary because now he has a nice apartment, money and car.

Q.No.10: What sort of person do you think Asad is?

Answer: I think Asad is a sort of person who likes attending parties. He is never contented with anything. When he was studying, he wanted to get a job. Now that he has a well-paid job, he wants to exchange it with student life.

Q.No.11: How does Umar know that Asad's new job must be driving him crazy?

Answer: Umar knows Farah's statement that Asad's new job must be driving him crazy.

.....

PARAGRAPH WRITING:

Multi Paragraph No.1:

- | | | |
|----------------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------|
| 1. Terrorism | 2. Corruption | 3. Smuggling |
| 4. Unemployment | 5. Inflation | 6. Black Marketing |
| 7. Nepotism | 8. Adulteration | 9. Over Population |
| 10. Drug Addiction | 11. Bribery | 12. Illiteracy |
| 13. Satanism | 14. Beggary | 15. Dowry |
| 16. Dishonesty | 17. Economic Crisis | 18. Poverty |
| 19. Provincialism | 20. Esthetic Violence | 21. Hoarding |
| 22. Smoking | 23. Pollution | 24. Over Population |
| 25. Deflition | 26. Load Shedding | 27. Flood |
| 28. Capatilism | 29. Bled Leafleting | 30. Disunity |
| 31. Hording | 32. Independence of Justice | |
| 33. Dearnness | 34. Political Issue | |
| 35. Kala Shan Cuff Culture | 36. Lake Of Tolerance | |
| 37. Racialism | 38. Provincialism | 39. Black mailing |
| 40. Price Rise | | |

_____ has become one of the most embarrassing and disappointing problems are all over the world especially in the third world country like Pakistan. It spreads with dangerous of devastating _____ Dimension and evil impact and implication of grave and from Idabel magnitude. We should take a bold step to eradicate that evil otherwise we will be destroyed. It is also our moral duty to remove the problems of _____ that we are facing in the society.

Multi Paragraph No.2:

- | | | | |
|--------------|-----------------|-------------|-----------|
| 1. Computer | 2. Mobile Phone | 3. Internet | |
| 4. T.V | 5. Smart Phone | 6. Laptop | |
| 7. Face book | 8. WhatsApp | 9. I-Phone | 10. Radio | _____ is one of the amazing invention of science. It is used for communication. It is very helpful. It has also provided us with additional facilities. It is true that inventions are neither good nor bad for human. It is their use which makes them good or bad. We should use all things positively for our own benefit and for society as well.

Paragraph No.3:

Democracy:

Democracy is a form of government in which people choose their representatives to run the system of the country. People are free to choose the leader of their own representative. Pakistan is also a democratic country. Its government consist of National Assembly and Senate. General election are held every five years.

Multi Paragraph No.4:

- 1.Education 2.Knowledge is power
3. Knowledge is light 4.Importance of knowledge

In The Holly Quran Allah Almighty says “Read In the name of Allah Who created man from a clot of blood. Read The Lard is most bounteous who thought by pen.” By this verse of Holly Quran we know that What is the important of education in any society? We know that the development of any country is depending on their education. Education is compulsory for all Muslims man and woman Knowledge is power so if we want make progress, we will have to pay full heed to education.

Multi Paragraph No.5:

- 1.Pakistan Day 2. National Day 3. The Eid day
4, 14 of August 5. Independence day 6. 23 March
7.Eid Malad-un Nabi

It is the day of blessing. It is celebrated with great zest and show. The day wear a festive look. It is the day of peace and security. On this occasion, Muslims offer special prayers for the unity, solidarity and community of the Islamic world. We pray for the stability of our country.

Paragraph No.6:

Tolerance:

Tolerance means to bear pains and hardships. Its also means to bear those things which one does not like. Islam teach us to practice tolerance as much as possible. The greatest tolerance was practiced by our Holy Prophet (PBUH) He never harmed any one. He is a model of tolerance.

Paragraph No.7:

Patriotism:

Patriotism means loyalty of person to his own nation or the leader of nation. Many people dedicate their lives to serve their nation. These people are referred to as patriots. Patriotism is the feeling of love and respect for ones country.

APPLICATION (CV) FOR A JOB

Jan 24 2019

The _____

Subject: Application for the post of _____

Sir,

In response to your advertisement published in the daily, The Jang Lahore, dated Jan 24, 2019 for the post of _____. I feel pleasure to present myself as a candidate for the said post. I have enclosed C.V with This letter along with other necessary documents.

My particulars are:

Name XYZ

Father Name: XYZ

Date of birth: XYZ

Qualification: FA

Marital Status: Unmarried

Domicile: XYZ

Contact No: xxxxxxxxx

It would be an honour for me to attend an interview with you any time convenient to you.

Thank you

You're sincerely,

XYZ

Application Ten in One

1. For leave to attend a marriage party
2. Leave for to see the patients
3. Leave for Urgent piece of work
4. Leave for Sick/ ill
5. Leave for to attend a funeral
6. Leave for to attend picnic
7. Leave for to see of relatives.
8. Leave for outgoing with family
9. Leave for receive a relative
10. Leave for visit the parents.

The Principal,
Examination Hall

Sir,

With due respect, I beg to state that

So I can not attend the college. Kindly grant me leave for one day only. I shall be very thankful to you for this act of kindness.

Your Obediently,
XYZ

Date: _____